

AT THE BASKETBALL GAME

A Humorous Monolog

by

Tressa Schildhouse Schouten

Wetmore Declamation Bureau

Box 2695
Sioux City, IA 51106

www.wetmoredeclamation.com
Email: speeches@wetmoredeclamation.com

CAUTION: Wetmore Declamation Bureau material is protected by United States copyright law and conventions. None of our material may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means-electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording, or any other-without prior permission. No trademark, copyright or other notice may be removed or changed. All rights reserved. Violators will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

AT THE BASKETBALL GAME
A Humorous Monolog

Tressa Schildhouse Schouten

Copyright 1963 by the WETMORE DECLAMATION BUREAU, Sioux City, Iowa.

Let's sit here, Dear. (To imaginary husband) This looks like a good place. (Looks up and around at basketball nets) Oh, look at those lovely fish nets! But, Sweetie, there's something wrong--a big hole at the bottom! We'd better tell someone about that, so they can be sewed up before the game starts! Such good crochet work too! Do you suppose one of the mothers made them? (Pause) Quit poking me! What? I talk too much, and too loud? 'Loudly' is the correct word, Dear.--Well, don't the teachers say we should watch our grammar so our children will use the right words?--Oh, yes, I know our boy isn't with us right now and can't hear it!

Well, anyway, what did you want to tell me?--You've forgotten?--You've remembered!--How stupid of me! Of course, that hole in the net is for the ball to pass through! Why I knew that all the time!--I did too!

--- END OF FREE PREVIEW ---