

AT THE HAIRDRESSER'S

A Humorous Monolog

by
May Isabel Fisk

Wetmore Declamation Bureau

Box 2695
Sioux City, IA 51106

www.wetmoredeclamation.com
Email: speeches@wetmoredeclamation.com

CAUTION: Wetmore Declamation Bureau material is protected by United States copyright law and conventions. None of our material may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means-electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording, or any other-without prior permission. No trademark, copyright or other notice may be removed or changed. All rights reserved. Violators will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

AT THE HAIRDRESSER'S
A Humorous Monolog

May Isabel Fisk

Copyright by THE WETMORE DECLAMATION BUREAU, Sioux City, Iowa.

She enters hurriedly.

Good gracious!--I'm so out of breath, I was afraid I would be late for my appointment. And you are the only one in this whole establishment who can do my hair properly.

Just pull the curtains a little closer--that woman in the next place is staring in at me. At least I can't see her, but I know she is

--they all do. Wait a moment. Let me see who it is.

Why, it's Minnie Rogers! How do you do? You're the last person I expected to see here. I never knew you had your hair done--Oh I didn't mean that--I meant it never looks--looks--as though it had been--No, no--I didn't mean that either. What I was trying to say is--was--it never looks as though it had been touched--artificial, you know--Mine? Why, my dear, it must be this strong light--you can't see anything clearly, it's so bright. I never, never put a thing on it. The last place I had it shampooed the girl let something fall in the water that made it look queer. I was awfully angry about it at the time, but it's worn off since.

Where do you think I just came from?--The hospital--No, no--there's nothing the matter with me. It's Carrie Douglas--she's been for five weeks without moving on her back! And all on account of charity!--Well, if you will just let me get in a word edgewise I'll tell you all about it.

--- END OF FREE PREVIEW ---