

I'M A CHEERLEADER!

A Humorous Reading

by
R. D. Fahey

Wetmore Declamation Bureau

Box 2695
Sioux City, IA 51106

www.wetmoredeclamation.com
Email: speeches@wetmoredeclamation.com

CAUTION: Wetmore Declamation Bureau material is protected by United States copyright law and conventions. None of our material may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means—electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording, or any other—without prior permission. No trademark, copyright or other notice may be removed or changed. All rights reserved. Violators will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

I'M A CHEERLEADER!
A Humorous Reading

R. D. Fahey

Copyright by the author. Exclusive permission to publish as a reading granted by the author to the WETMORE DECLAMATION BUREAU. ISBN 1-60045-008-3

DIRECTOR'S NOTE: The performer must be a very attractive girl, blonde with an ability to laugh at and with herself. If performed in uniform, (suggested) be certain to remove all identifying letters and patches which would give evidence as to the school.

PERFORMER'S OPENING REMARK: We are at a speech contest. The next, most enthusiastic performer is about to enter.

(The performer "bounces" onto stage in character mode. She is obviously chewing gum.)

SPEAKS: Hi, you guys! My name is Bambi and I'm a CHEERLEADER! (She remembers she has gum in her mouth, removes it and holds it between her thumb and index finger throughout the whole performance.)

Now, one may ask like "What does a cheerleader do?" Well, we yell and jump and spin and use our hips. Sometimes we stop to rest and watch the game.

One may ask, "What does it take to be a cheerleader?" Not bragging, but it helps to be pretty or at least be a leader. Sorta a leader-leader...I know I was chosen for my leadership culpabilities. And of course we practice, practice and practice. And we must take care of our hair.

--- END OF FREE PREVIEW ---